

- › Areas of research
- › Publication series

Research

🔊 Listen

In research we address topics which are located in the area of organisational design or strategic management as well as their respective interfaces. In this process, the integration of business activities in international contexts is taken into account.

Further more Prof. Dr. Susanne Royer is involved in the 'International Journal of Globalisation and Small Business' and the 'Series on International Human Resource Management and Strategy Research'.

If you are interested in our research please contact us!