Tuition Fee:

The University of Flensburg does not charge tuition fees.

Enrolment and Semester Fee:

A non-recurring administration fee of 36,00 EUR has to be paid prior to enrolment. For each term you have to pay a semester fee of 100,00 EUR, which is a contribution for the students union and the students services (Studentenwerk). The "Studentenwerk" operates the students halls of residence and the refectories, where you can buy meals at a reduced price. The fee also includes a semester ticket covering public transport within the city of Flensburg for the duration of the semester.

Cost of Excursions:

During the first two semesters students will participate in several excursions. The total cost of these excursions is in the range of 700,00 - 800,00 EUR.

Cost of International Class:

Participation in the compulsory 5-week "International Class" costs about 1.200,00 to 1.400,00 EUR, depending on the location and size of the students group. This includes all cost for transport, accommodation and food. During the time of the International Class you don't need accommodation in Flensburg.

Cost of Field research:

Students have to conduct a 3-month field research to prepare their Master Thesis. This field research is usually conducted in a developing country. The cost of flight, local transport, accommodation and subsistence depend on the location.
