ProRef - Program for the Academic Preparation and Integration of Refugees

The European University of Flensburg (EUF) continues to support refugees who are interested in study programs at German universities. The ProRef-Program prepares refugees in language skills and methodology as well as integrating them into the German higher education system, the labour market and society.

The one-year program starts in July each year and is sponsored by the DAAD and federal state of Schleswig-Holstein.

CampusFRIENDS

CampusFRIENDS brings together refugee ProRef participants and EUF students. Through the program students can show their CampusFRIEND the university, involve her/him in student life and get to know a different culture in the process. The meetings are arranged independently and there are special international events such as the International Cooking Exchange and the International Fall celebration on campus.

Uni Host

Uni Host includes the LEI Partner Project, Campus Friends and the Language Tandem. The programs enable young people on campus to exchange ideas easily and interculturally. The program is aimed at German and international students as well as participants of the ProRef program.
