Academic Editing Service

Listen

EUF Translation and Editing Services is a free, in-house service of Europa-Universität Flensburg. We provide professional editorial support for academic texts written in English by EUF researchers and faculty. Our aim is to help you produce written work in English that meets the linguistic standards and expectations of the international research community.

The goal of this service is to foster EUF researchers' contribution to international scholarship through outstanding publications and funded projects.

Services range from light proofreading to heavy copy editing.

If you have a finished article, abstract, or grant application in English, we encourage you to apply for editorial support. Processing times can vary.

Please read our FAQ sheet before you submit your request.
