Welcome to the language center!

The Language Center (FSZ) is the central contact point for all students and staff of the Europa-Universität Flensburg interested in language learning. In addition to semester courses in 15 languages, we also often offer intensive courses during the semester breaks and further opportunities for language learning (tandem, language learning advice, German language café). In addition, the DSH exam (internal only) and the DELE exam can be taken with us.

Our offer is exclusively for members of the Europa-Universität, i.e. students and employees.

Since summer semester 2017, students and staff can take part in our language courses for free!
