Description

The "Spanish A1 Language Course" is suitable for learners without any previous knowledge. It is about teaching the first basic knowledge of the Spanish language.

It is based on everyday conversation topics and situations (greetings and introductions, nationality and language, addresses and numbers, etc.) and is designed to provide a basic knowledge of Spanish grammar and vocabulary. The main topics covered in the vocabulary development are: the Spanish alphabet, character traits and hobbies, tourism and holidays, transportation and seasons, colours, clothes and objects.

The grammar focuses on: the numbers, the forms of the subject pronoun, the particular article, the demonstrative pronoun, the noun, genus and numerus, the possessive pronoun, describing holiday habits, indicative present, the direct and indirect object pronoun.

Placement Test

For a registration from level A1.2 a placement test is required if you have not yet written an exam with us.

The course takes place during the semester with 2 SWS and is designed in such a way that the participants complete level A1 according to the European Framework of Reference for Languages in one semester. Regular and active participation is a prerequisite for successful completion of the course. To do this, it is also necessary to complete homework in order to practice and consolidate what you have learned.

Description

Target group:

The Spanish Course A1 and A2 is suitable for students with no previous knowledge or little knowledge.

Course description:

In a university context, part of the learning process usually has to take place outside the lecture hall. Therefore, this language course is structured according to the Flipped Classroom principle and offers learners the opportunity to acquire content independently and to use this knowledge in the course: They research a topic, deal with various documents (written texts, videos, audio...), reflect on grammar and vocabulary topics. The aim is to use the attendance time for more intensive collaboration and interaction and to fully exploit this potential for learning the Spanish language.
