You can apply for a place in the ProRef Program if you:

Have a refugee background

As proof you need one of the following residence statuses:

- » Proof of arrival (Ankunftsnachweis)
- » Temporary resident permit (Aufenthaltsgestattung)
- » Degree of tolerance (Duldung)
- » Residence permit (Aufenthaltslaubnis)

You can find further explanations on the various residence statuses on the website of the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees.

Obtained a university entrance certificate (Hochschulzugangsberechtigung)

- » School-leaving certificate that entitles you to higher education studies in Germany; equivalent to the German "Abitur" (original/certified copy with certified translation into German or English)
- » If available: a certificate of study (original BA- or MA-Transcript or certificate/certified copy with certified translation into German or English)

To check whether your secondary school degree is recognised in Germany and whether you fulfil the admission requirements, you can use the DAAD database on admission requirements.

Missing leaving certificates

If you have graduated from school or university, but are unable to provide your educational certificates, the EUF offers a study aptitude test TestAS. Prior to this test, a plausibility interview takes place during an interview at the EUF - only then can the TestAS be taken. Please contact us beforehand by e-mail at: proref@uni-flensburg.de. The next TestAS will take place on 31 May 2019.

Have language skills in German or English at level B1 or higher

Proven language skills at level B1 in German or English.

Missing language certificates

If you are missing a language certificate you can take the language placement test onSET in German and/or English.

The next dates are:

- » July 10, 2019: onSET between 10am and 4pm
