Summer School I

The ProRef program begins with the Summer School I in July. During this first stage, the participants have the opportunity to refresh their language skills in German or English at level B1. In addition they attend the course Academic Culture in Germany.

Intensive Language Course

The eight-month Intensive Language Course begins in September. The German and English language courses at levels B2-C1 and C1-C2 provide a qualification for any German, English or bilingual study program at the EUF as well as for study programs at other universities.

Summer School II

This period is followed by the Summer School II where participants are taught the second language they have not learned in their Intensive Language Course beforehand (viz. English B1 for the German track or German B1 for the English track). The Summer School II additionally includes the introductory course Academic Working and Writing.

A detailed overview of the individual stages can be found in the PDF document.
