

University homepage > Prospective Students > The First Semester

- › Orientation Week
- › What courses am I required to take?
- › Signing up for courses and exams
- › Unistarter

Welcome!

Listen

Your studies are beginning and we warmly welcome you at the Europa-Universität Flensburg!

In the navigation bar on the left side you will find instructions and important information that will help guide you through the first weeks of your studies at the Europa-Universität.

We wish you a good and successful start to your studies!

Questions about start of Studies?

The Central Student Counseling Service is the first point of contact for both prospective students and enrolled students on all questions relating to studies.

