Success Stories of the M.A. European Studies Alumni Community Christian Kenntner (EUS Class of 2011) "European Studies at Flensburg is a mind-opener and a great exchange of ideas and views. With a Bachelor-degree in Sociology and the idea to become a radio journalist, I decided to study European Studies at Flensburg. I met so many great people from all over the world and I learned so much about other countries, the view on the EU from outside and of course a lot about Europe in the study program. The insight into politics, economy, history, law and more aspects around Europe gave me the perfect background

Call for papers: "External Solidarity: EU's responses to Global Challenges" The European Studies Master Programme at the Europe-Universität Flensburg in- vites all Master and Bachelor students to a student conference taking place on July 2nd, 2015 in Flensburg. The conference - External Solidarity: EU's responses to Global Challenges - places emphasis on the current shifts in approaches, actions and policies of the European Union in regards to a large variety of global challeng- es. These in turn affect how the EU shapes its policies, as well as how the EU is perceived
