and no major damage could be noticed. My son has somehow managed to adjust and adapted with the situation. My wife is still scared to be inside. I spent my wonderful 6 years in Flensburg for my masters and doctoral study. Part of that period, I was together with my wife and both kids in beautiful Flensburg. We have very good memory of being there. I am currently the President of Flensburg Association for Energy Management, an alumni organization formed by the returnees of the University of Flensburg and currently having about 40 members in it. Out of them, 12 members are currently out of the country either
