Learning a Language Online - How does it work? On the stated date and time you meet with your teacher and the other participants via the conference tool webex. The groups are much smaller than usual, which is especially beneficial for oral interaction. Your teacher (who has been specially trained for the new format) will supervise your learning progress individually and give you regular feedback. In our virtual classroom (via moodle) you will find the weekly course overview with all topics as well as a variety of working materials and learning activities that you can work
