, Postcolonialism Our European model of integration is the most developed in the world. Imperfect though it still is, it nevertheless works on a continental scale ... and I believe we can make a convincing case that it would also work globally. – Romano Prodi, former President of the European Commission 1. Introduction: Do as the Romans do?1 The inside and the outside are two sides [...] tension between the idea of model embedded in the politics which compose the EU and the idea of model applied to the EU itself as the EU often works through inverting national realities. So,
