Communities at the University

▶▶ Listen

Students starting their time at the Europa-Universität Flensburg will find a lively community life on campus. The Protestant Student Community and the Catholic Student Community both use the community centre "Campelle" for open community evenings, discussion groups and workshops on current topics. In addition, intercultural evenings and encounters take place in the Campelle regularly.

It is usually open Mondays to Thursdays and may be used as a retreat by all students and staff.

Campelle

Campelle is the name of the small chapel which is a place of silence and meeting place for all students and employees of the universities. It is also home to the Protestant Student Community, ESG and the Catholic Student Community, KHG.

Apart from ESG and KHG other Christian groups also use Campelle. It is also used for events hosted by both universities.
