

CONFERENCE

EMIGRATION AND THE STATE. THE IMPACT OF WORKER MOBILITY ON COUNTRIES OF ORIGIN IN THE EU AND BEYOND

Senate room, building Tallinn, ground floor, TAL 007

Wednesday, February 7 - Friday, February 9 2024

Feb.
7

15.00 - 15.30 hrs

Welcome

Registration & Coffee

15.30 - 17.00 hrs

Panel I: Freedom of movement of persons and EU emigration

Chair and Discussant: Ettore Recchi (Sciences Po, Paris)

The end of freedom of movement in Europe? Assessing the effects and future of a borderless Europe from the Cold war to Covid

Adrian Favell (University of Cork)

Disembedding citizenship in the EU: Internal migration and its externalities

Christof Roos (Europa-Universität Flensburg) and Susanne K. Schmidt (Universität Bremen)

What happens when the free movement of persons comes to an end? Brexit as a learning experience of the paradoxes of free movement and its control

Russel King (University of Sussex)

17.30 - 19.00 hrs

Keynote: Concepts and approaches deployed to understanding emigrant states and sending countries

Eva Østergaard-Nielsen (Universidad Pompeu-Fabra)

19.00 - Open end

Reception at University Campus

Feb.
8

09.00 - 10.45 hrs

Panel II: Political cleavages and emigration

Chair and Discussant: Emanuel Deutschmann (Europa-Universität Flensburg)

The Impact of Emigration on Anti-Establishment voting in Europe

Maik Herold, Mariana S. Mendes, Cyrill Otteni (MIDEM - TU Dresden)

Exit and/ vote: the politicization of emigrant voting in Bulgaria as an emigration state

Julia Rone (University of Cambridge)

Political trust and attitudes towards emigration across the EU

Francesco Visconti (University of Milan)

CONFERENCE

EMIGRATION AND THE STATE. THE IMPACT OF WORKER MOBILITY ON COUNTRIES OF ORIGIN IN THE EU AND BEYOND

Senate room, building Tallinn, ground floor, TAL 007

Wednesday, February 7 - Friday, February 9 2024

11.15 - 13.00 hrs

Panel III: Emigration and the welfare state

Chair and Discussant: Lucia Kureková (Slovak Academy of Sciences)

Return migration in the EU: trajectories and national policy responses

Dominic Afscharian (University of Tübingen), Cecilia Bruzelius (University of Copenhagen) and Lea Reiss (University of Tübingen)

The local governance of emigration: a case study in Romania
Magdalena Ulceluse (Malmo University)

The emigration of doctors from Albania: a medical brain drain from a peripheral European country

Ilir Gëdeshi (Center for Economic and Social Studies, Tirana) and Russel King (Sussex University)

14.30 - 16.15 hrs

Panel IV: Emigration and the economy

Chair and Discussant: Ulrich Glassmann (Europa-Universität Flensburg)

Free movement in crisis: the regressive transfer mechanism of economic migration

Anna Kyriazi (University of Milan) and Waltraud Schelkle (EUI)

Specific visions or muddling through: Diverse migration strategies to sustain growth models in Poland and Portugal

Maximilian Nagel (Vrije Universiteit Brussel), Martin Seeliger (Universität Bremen) and Felix Syrovatka (Freie Universität Berlin)

16.30 - 17.00 hrs

Wrap up day 2

19.00 - Open end

Conference dinner at Lauschtig Lokal

CONFERENCE

EMIGRATION AND THE STATE. THE IMPACT OF WORKER MOBILITY ON COUNTRIES OF ORIGIN IN THE EU AND BEYOND

Senate room, building Tallinn, ground floor, TAL 007

Wednesday, February 7 - Friday, February 9 2024

Feb.
9

09.00 - 10.30 hrs

Panel V: Diaspora relations beyond return and remittances

Chair and Discussant: Christine Barwick-Gross (Europa-Universität Flensburg)

Challenging territorial limitation: A case for the EU coordination of diaspora and emigration policies from a geopolitical perspective

Agnieszka Weinar (Carlton University)

Measuring emigration: Building the EXIT (Emigration Policies) and EMIX (Emigrant Policies) Indices

Luicy Pedroza (Colegio de Mexico) and Pau Palop-Garcia (DEZIM, Humboldt Universität Berlin)

Resisting transnationalism after joining the EU: Ban of a dual and preference for a single political citizenship by the Lithuanian state

Mindaugas Kuklys (Europa Universität Flensburg)

10.30 - 11.00 hrs

Wrap up conference, publication, departure

