

The B2.2 English language level course is for students who want to expand on their previous English language knowledge at an upper intermediate level. The focus of this is on advanced English language skills. Attention is paid to the four primary language skills of reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The course is rooted in an English for academic purposes pedagogy but is applicable to everyday life contexts.