2. ACCOMMODATION REQUEST

What type of accommodation are you looking for?

☐ Room in a private household (You rent a room in someone's home and share some spaces such as the kitchen or bathroom with the host.)

☐ WG room (shared flat) (WG = Wohngemeinschaft. You have your own private bedroom and share the kitchen, bathroom, and common areas with other students or young professionals.)

☐ Shared apartment (You share an apartment with one or more other people, but not necessarily in a traditional student WG. You may share rent and common areas.)

☐ Studio apartment (A self-contained apartment with a private bathroom and kitchenette. The living, sleeping, and cooking areas are usually combined in one room.)

☐ Single apartment (A fully private apartment with its own bathroom, kitchen, and living space. No sharing with others.)

☐ Temporary accommodation (A short-term housing solution, such as a guest room, sublet, hostel, or temporary rental while looking for long-term accommodation.)

☐ Housing for Help (Wohnen für Hilfe) (Reduced or free rent in exchange for helping the host with tasks such as gardening, shopping, childcare, language practice, or household support. Personal care and nursing services are excluded.)

☐ Student residence hall (dormitory) (A room in student housing managed by a student services organization. Usually includes shared kitchens and common areas.)
