

Staff Training Week: Connecting Global Perspectives, Student Support & Community Engagement

UL Global

Mon 18 May 2026 to Fri 22 May 2026

University of Limerick invites academic and professional staff to a five-day Erasmus+ Staff Training Week on inclusive internationalisation, student support and community engagement. Delivered by UL Global, Student Affairs Division and UL Engage, the programme shares good practice, supports staff development and builds international partnerships. Participants will choose from three thematic tracks, with shared sessions and networking throughout.

There is no fees for this staff week. Participants are encouraged to utilise staff mobility funding from their institution to support their participation.

To register please complete the following link by 1 April 2026 :
