

Foundational courses in European law, politics, and history. Training in critical thinking and academic writing.

Courses on European societal and economic life in political economy, law and philosophy. Training in research design and methods.

Elective course on analysing and debating current topics. Select to specialise in either EU law and politics, or focus on European societal challenges. Students work in small teams and obtain practical research skills.

Option to go abroad for obtaining a double degree with a partner university or for participating in Erasmus+ mobility

Option to collect credit points with relevant internship

Students pursue their master thesis research project, conduct fieldwork, and participate in the master thesis colloquium.

Information & Application

Scan the code and find out more about the course!

Any questions?

Student Guidance and Counseling Service

studienberatung@uni-flensburg.de +49 461 805 2193
www.uni-flensburg.de/zsb
Europa-Universität Flensburg
Auf dem Campus 1, 24943 Flensburg
Gebäude Helsinki - HEL 002

Master

“ Come to understand Europe and shape its future! ”

Let's go
1.
Semester

2.
Semester

3.
Semester

4.
Semester

Follow us and discover more about the Europa-Universität Flensburg

Inhalt Stand: Februar 2026

Important information

Regular study time

2 years

Degree

Master of Arts

Language of instruction

English

Focal points

European Union law and politics
European societal and economic life
debating current topics

Application period

May 15 to August 31
December 1 to August 31 (Non-EU)

Start date

Fall semester (= September)

Exchange semester

Double degree opportunities and Erasmus+ exchange

Internship

Internship option

EUS Counseling

admissions.eus@uni-flensburg.de

Why the degree program is fun and enriching

We are:

- International
- Interdisciplinary
- Research oriented

As our student you get to:

- Live in an international environment
- Make new friends from all around the world
- Develop crucial skills for employability
- Learn to take on social responsibility to work for a sustainable future

What we offer:

- Courses taught by experts in their fields
- An international study environment
- Courses covering current topics in EU affairs and European society
- Double Degrees with University of Catania in Italy and University Limerick in Ireland
- Career month and networking with former graduates
- Annual study trip to Brussels

This is special

- ➔ A program taught 100% in English
- ➔ Professors who support your personal study path and help to network for your future career
- ➔ Obtain two degree certificates when you follow the double degree options
- ➔ Tap into an extensive international alumni network

Exciting career prospects

- Civil servant in the European Union (EU) institutions
- Civil servant working on EU affairs in local, regional or national government
- Policy officer for EU affairs in NGOs and private companies
- Manager of EU funded programs
- Project manager for foundation with societal or scientific mission
- Policy analyst in think tank
- Doctoral researcher at a university

Possible salary

- EU civil servant, starting salary (AD scale), €5,000
- Doctoral researcher at university (Schleswig-Holstein), full-time, €4,800
- Project manager foundation, €4,800 to €5,300

The degree program suits you if...

- ➔ You have a BA in the social sciences, law, economics, or the humanities
- ➔ You want to study in an international environment
- ➔ You seek a career linked to EU affairs
- ➔ You want to obtain the skills for becoming an independent researcher
- ➔ You want to shape the future of Europe

Studying at the EUF and the Flensburg Campus

Here you find language courses free of charge, a sports center, a swimming pool and several student organizations (political, environmental, intercultural, religious...).

In the evening there are theme events: cinema and game nights, theater plays, BBQs. A small campus makes connecting easier.

You can reach several beaches, the Baltic and the North sea and Denmark by bus and Hamburg by train.

