

| Master of Arts  |   | International Management Studies |               |                |              |            |            |
|---|---|----------------------------------|---------------|----------------|--------------|------------|------------|
| Modul 46  | ECTS-Credits  | Frequency                        | Contact hours | Total Workload | Contact Time | Self-study | Duration   |
| Elective module 151220410   | 5   | every 2nd Semester (Spring)      | 3 hrs/week    | 150 h          | 45 h         | 105 h      | 1 Semester |
| Module title  | Distance Learning Project on Cooperation       |                                  |               |                |              |            |            |
| The module is designed to acquaint students with in-depth theoretical and practical knowledge in varying current topics in the area of (cooperative) business models. Furthermore, the participants experience working in an intercultural and interdisciplinary team, integrate knowledge from different modules and apply it into a research study, learn how to set up a small empirical research, learn how to present the research results, experience working in a distance learning project. This module addresses current topics from the area of (cooperative) business models in different industry contexts. Cooperation experience is gained. |   |                                  |               |                |              |            |            |
| Module components   |   |                                  |               |                |              |            |            |
| No.   | Module title  |                                  |               |                |              |            |            |
| 1,  | 151220411Distance Learning Project on Cooperation |                                  |               |                |              |            |            |