Mobility

Dear student teachers, you are looking for a possibility to learn more about how education in Europe is changing? Then we have an attractive offer for you: The project Partners in Mobility invites you to participate in our Summer School on the topic "The Changing Role of Education in Europe" from 8-12 August, 2022. The Summer School will take place on the campus of Europa-Universität Flensburg and the city of Flensburg. Together with lecturers from University College South Denmark, Linköping University/Sweden, Jyväskylä University/Finland, Eötvös Loránd University TÓK/Hungary and Europa-Universität Flensburg/Germany, we will look at the topic from different perspectives. In addition, language tasters and a varied leisure programme await you offering the opportunity to get in touch with international students and to experience together the cosy city of Flensburg with its picturesque harbour and beaches close to the city.

We are able to support five teacher training students from each of our partners universities with 250€ per person. Among other expenses, this support will be used to pay for your accommodation. We will also provide catering during the classes from Monday to Friday. For further funding for travel expenses, please, contact your international office.

We look forward to meeting you in August, your Partners in Mobility team
