B.A. European Cultures and Society (EUCS)

- Students' Obligation:

Students need to register for every single examination, in case they want to take them and
Students need to de-register from examinations in case they don't want to take them

- Only students can register for examinations, no one else can do it for the students. Only with a correct registration can students pass their courses and get their ECTS.

- Start: when the option is open in the system. Usually at the start of the semester. During or shortly after course registration.

- End: up to 14 days before the exam date. The valid exam date for the purpose of registration/de-registration is the one mentioned in the system.

- Student X → registers for the written exam of Society & Economy
- 15.12.2026 → takes the exam
- 04.02.2027 → publication of the grade online

Passing grade

4.0 - 1.0

Great! The module is closed.

There is no option to re-take the exam.

Failing grade

5.0

- Register for the exam in season 2
- Re-take exam at the end of February
- Passing grade until end of April
- Great! Finished.

- If Failed exam in season 2
- If only wants to do the exam next year

- Careful: doing an exam the year after might mean the need to do the course all over again due to changes

Students who are not registered for an examination:

- are not allowed to take the examination
- in case they take the examination, and it is corrected, there is no way to insert the grade in the system

Consequence: student will have to take the examination the next time the module is offered (next exam season, next semester, next year…)

- Students who are registered and don't attend the exam fail the exam automatically and need to wait for the next time the exam is offered to register for it.
- Students who are registered and don’t hand in a paper in time fail the exam automatically and need to wait for the next time the exam is offered to register for it.
- Students who copy in the exam or commit plagiarism fail the exam (not automatically but after a decision of the Examinations’ Committee), need to wait longer being able to register in the exam and might suffer other consequences upon decision from the Examinations’ Committee (up to expulsion)

Students can only take each examination 3 times

After that students are not allowed to take the module examination anymore.

If the module is a mandatory module in this study program, students are not allowed to complete the study program. Furthermore, students are not allowed to complete the same study program in any other university in Germany.

*Possibility of an exceptional 4 attempt, subjected to previous approval of the Examinations' Committee

Ill at the time of the exam?

- Students who are registered for an oral or written exam and cannot attend it because of illness:

  - need to go to the doctor, latest on the day of the exam and get a sick leave
  - need to send a scanned copy of the sick leave immediately (= on the same day) via email to the examinations office (spa.iim@uni-flensburg.de)
  - send the original in paper to the examinations office no later than 3 days after the sick leave

- In this case, the students will be considered sick on the day of the exam, will not automatically fail the exam and can take the exam again, the next time it is offered.

Ill at the time of writing a paper?

- Students who are registered for an exam in the form of a written assignment to be completed at home and due to illness cannot complete the assignment:

  - need to go to the doctor, before the deadline expires and get a sick leave
  - need to send a scanned copy of the sick leave immediately (= on the same day) via email to the examinations office (spa.iim@uni-flensburg.de)
  - send the original in paper to the examinations office no later than 3 days after the sick leave

- In this case, the students will be considered sick for the amount of time that the doctor states in the sick leave and their time to write the paper will be extended by the same amount of days.

- In the email that you send to spa.iim@uni-flensburg.de please don‘t forget to mention:
  - you name and student number,
  - the examination that the sick leave is affecting and the date of the exam.
  In the example of Society & Economy mentioned above, that would be:
  Exam of Society and Economy – TD 1
  Exam date: 15.12.2026
  - please use your student email always.

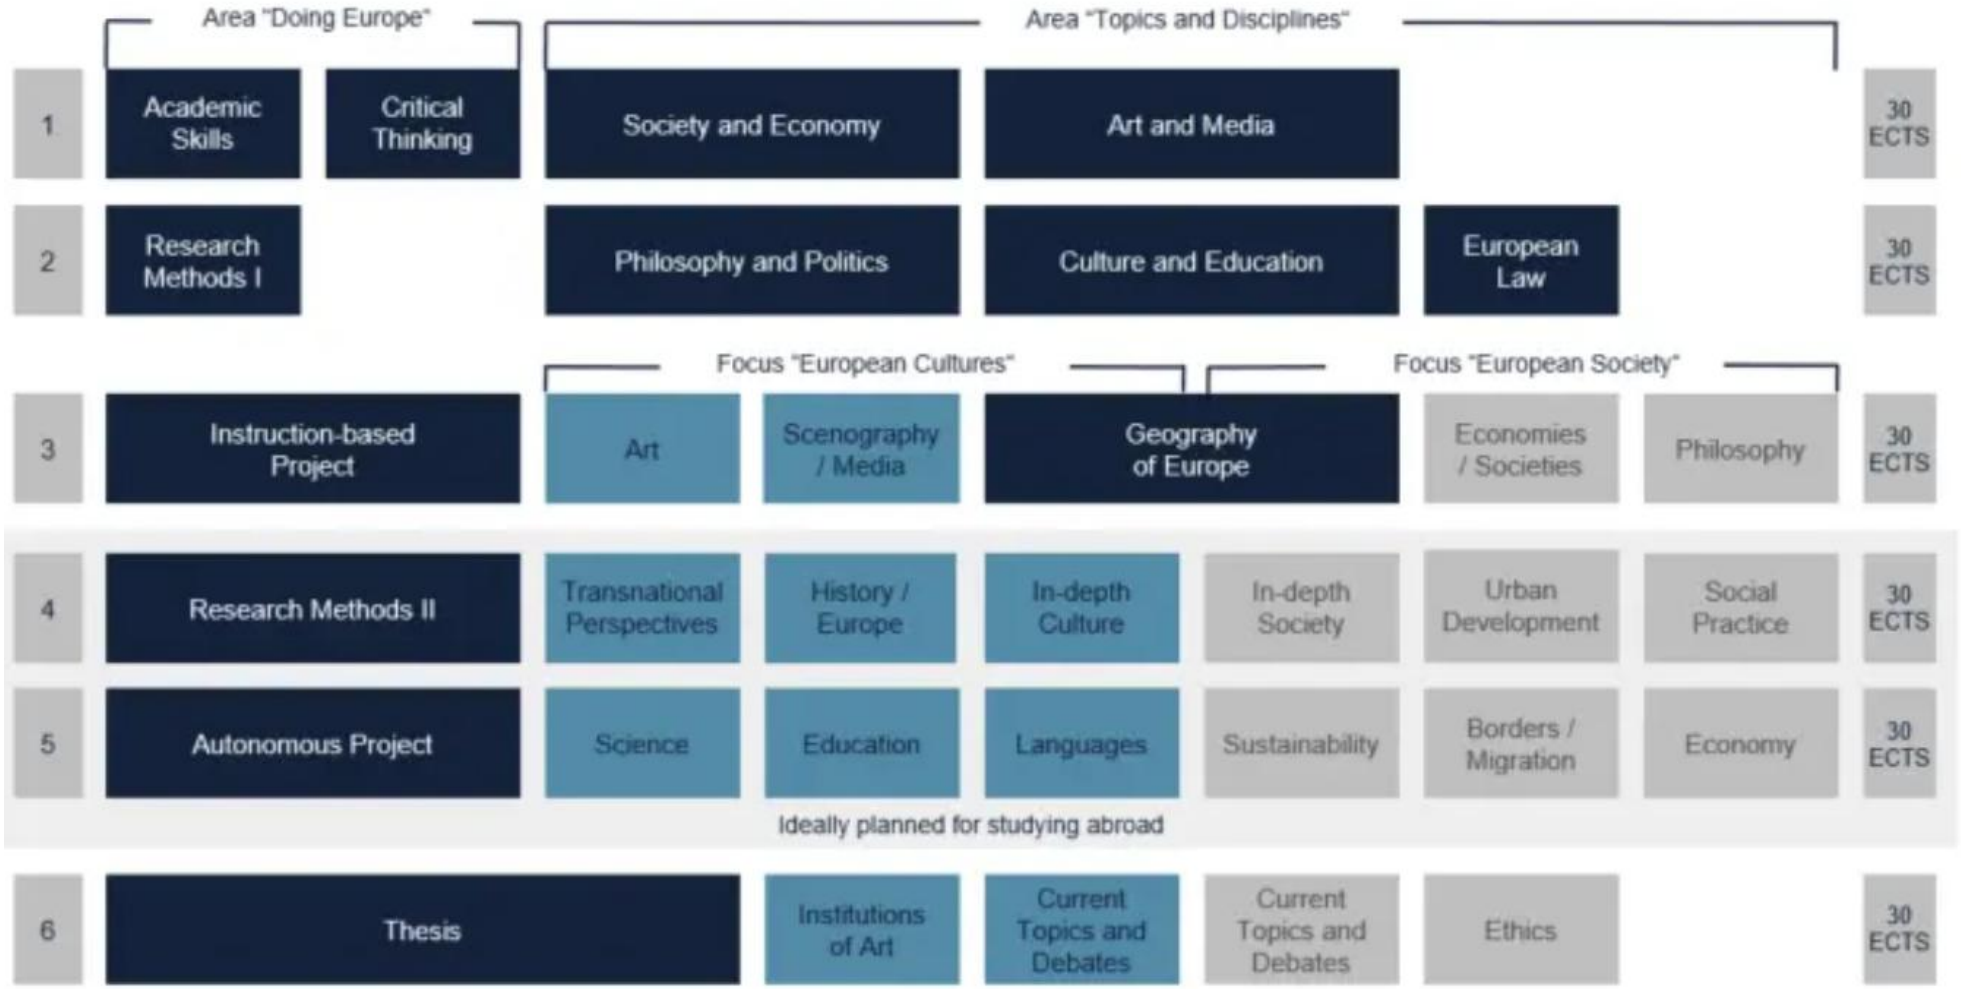

- Ms. Drenkow from SPA is the person receiving the email and who needs the original sick leave. You can find all the contacts here: https://www.uni-flensburg.de/en/academics/student-services/karin-drenkow

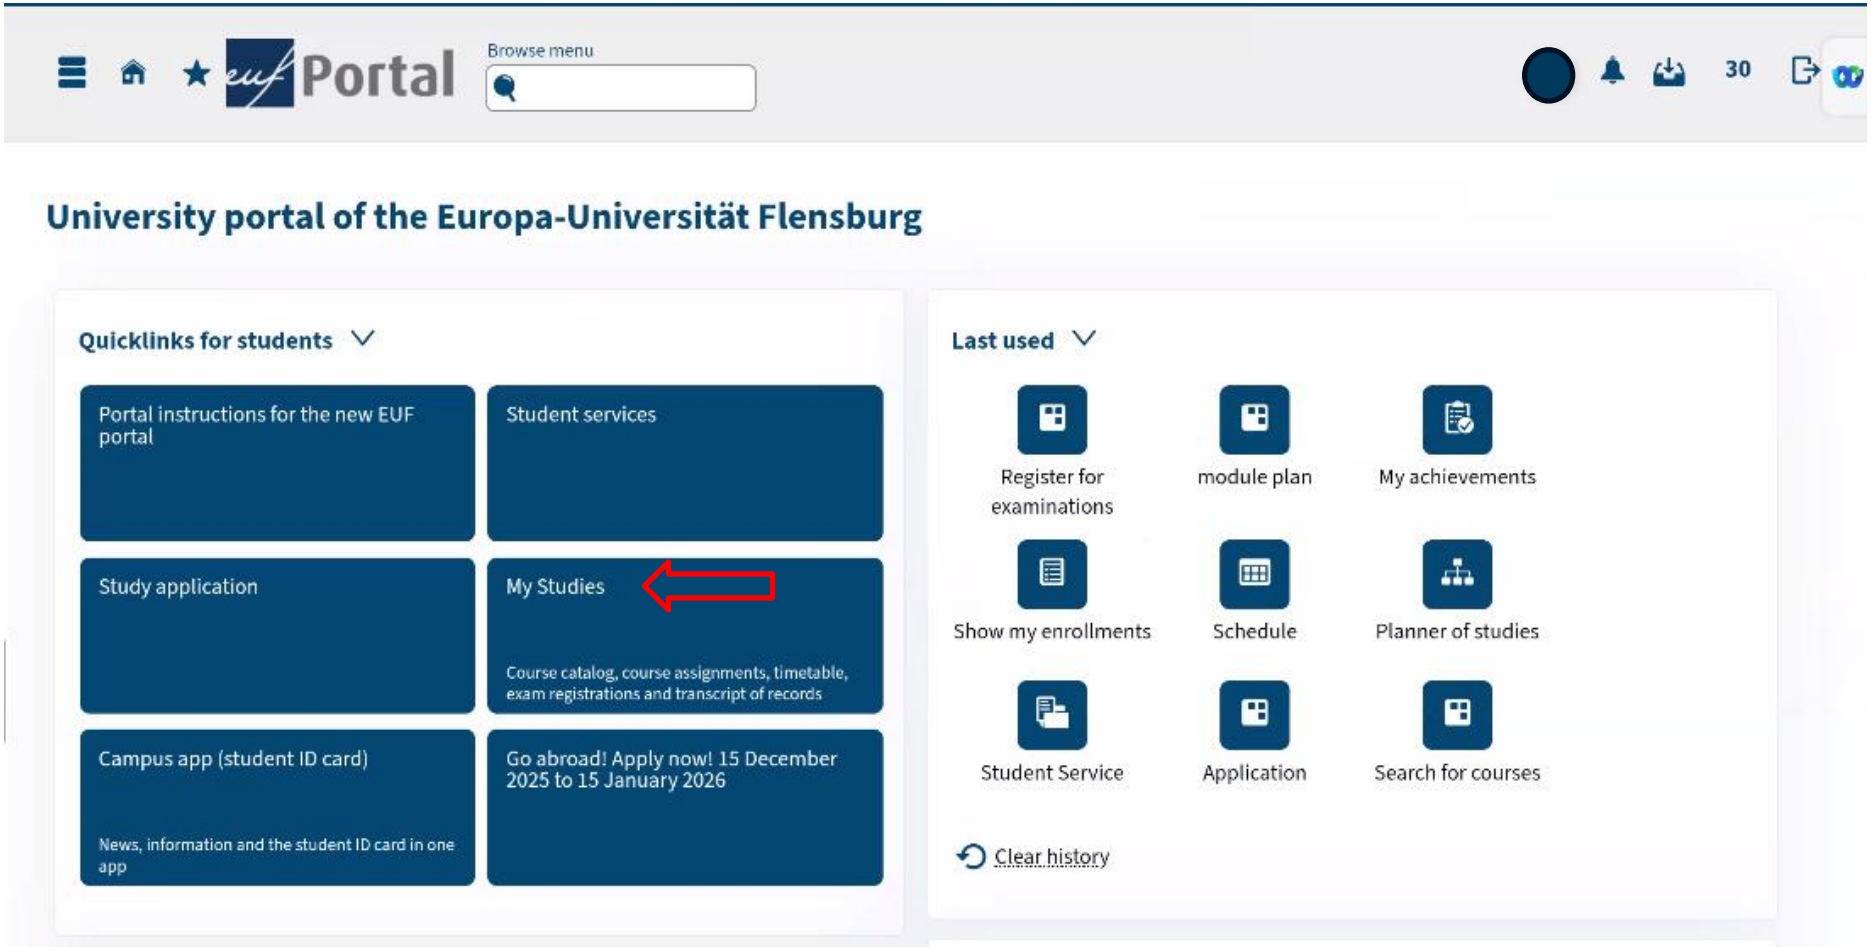

- If at any point in time you encounter a technical issue that prevents you from registering from an exam in time, please immediately send an email to
  - spa.iim@uni-flensburg.de or
  - coordinator.eucs.@uni-flensburg.de or
  - Kamila.Kubelke@uni-flensburg.de indicating the issue that you are encountering and ideally sending screenshots.
