Students take six seminars in the second semester. Four of these seminars are allocated to Module 2 "Contact & Conflict" when registering for the examinations, two of these seminars are allocated to Module 3 "Contact & Conflict - Focused".

.Please indicate on this form how your seminars are divided between the two modules.

The following four seminars are part of my Module 2:

(important: in Module 2, you must select four seminars from four different disciplines, each one labeled A in the submodule exams. No discipline may appear twice in Module 2).

I will take the Modul 2 exam with:

Lecturer:

The following two seminars are part of my Module 3:

(Important: in module 3, you select the two disciplines that you did not choose as part of module 2, again marked A. If you chose a specialization, a discipline that already exists as part of module 2 or 3 may appear a second time in module 3. This - and only this - duplication is indicated by the partial module examination label B. B means focus).
