ICES Call for field research and qualification grants / Deadline: 15.06.2025

ICES (ko-)finanziert Teilnahme an Methodenschulungen, Feldforschungs- und Archivaufenthalte

We provide grants for researchers in qualification phases at EUF as well as for associated ICES members who plan to conduct field research or archive/library stays. In addition, you can apply for funding to participate in European Studies-specific training courses. We can fund stays for research or qualification purposes of generally up to 1.200 euros each. They should take place in spring semester 2025 or autumn semester 2025/26. Please provide an application (max. 1 page), including a short description of your research project respectively the training program you plan to attend, the necessity for and details about your intended stay, preliminary timeframe, and a budget plan. Applications can be submitted in German or English. We give priority to ICES Research School members when awarding the grants. Please send it to ices@uni-flensburg.de by 15.06.2025. The call is published every year in May and November. You can also apply for funding between calls. Applications will then be approved as part of the next call. We look forward to receiving your proposal.

Emmy Hennings: A transclass voice of European modernism/ Termin: 12.–13.06.25

Internationale Tagung zu Leben und Werk von Emmy Hennings, organisiert von Margot Brink

On the occasion of the 140th birthday of Flensburg-born writer, performer, and Dada pioneer Emmy Hennings, this international conference brings together scholars from France, Ireland, Italy, Switzerland, Spain, the US, and Germany to explore her work and life from transnational and transclass perspectives. Taking place on 12–13 June 2025 at Europa-Universität Flensburg (Room TAL 007), the event will address themes such as class mobility, structural violence, and literary networks across Europe. Organized by Prof. Dr. Margot Brink (Institute for Romance Studies/French) and supported by the DFG, the conference will also be accompanied by a public festival organized by the Emmy Hennings Society in Flensburg (See: <https://emmy-hennings-gesellschaft.de/festival-2025>). A livestream of the conference talks is planned. More information

Purity in Minoritised Languages/ Termin: 19.–21.06.25

Internationale Tagung zu Sprachideologien, organisiert von Nils Langer und Kolleg:innen

From 19 to 21 June 2025, the international conference Purity in Minoritised Languages, organized by the Institute for Frisian Studies and Minority Research in cooperation with KURS, ICES, and ECMI, will take place. The event, supported by the DFG, brings together leading scholars to explore how notions of purity influence language ideologies, norm-setting, and policy, particularly in the context of minoritized and minority languages. Topics include purity, norms, activism, and popular discourse. Plenary speakers include Aneta Pavlenko (York), James Hawkey (Bristol), and Julia Sallabank (SOAS London). The conference is coordinated by Nils Langer (Flensburg), Silvia dal Negro (Bolzano), Henrik Rosenkvist (Göteborg), and Jeff Williams (Texas Tech). More information

Intimacy on the Move. Bodies, Economies & Desires across the Long 20th Century / Termin: 07.–08.07.2025

International workshop on the interplays between intimacies and mobilities, organised by Christiane Reinecke (Seminar für Geschichte) and colleagues

This workshop aims to contribute to the emergent research on the intersecting histories of sexualities and mobilities by shining a light on the various ways in which economies influenced the intimate practices of people on the move. In order to cover a wide range of national, imperial and postcolonial contexts, the workshop brings together international scholars working on different regions and different types of mobilities, like tourism and labour migration. It explores how historical subjects navigated, were shaped by and, in turn, influenced different sexual and mobility regimes. The workshop takes place on campus in TAL 007 and is organized by Benno Gammerl (European University Institute), Nikolaos Papadogiannis (University of Stirling), Christiane Reinecke (Europa-Universität Flensburg), and Ulrike Schaper (Freie Universität Berlin). Further information. Please send an email to Christiane Reinecke by the 30th of June if you are interested to participate.

Comparative Perspectives on Taxation and the Colonial State/ Termin: 25.–27.09.25

Internationale Konferenz zu Kolonialfinanzen, organisiert von M. Buggeln und J. Kreutz

How did European colonialism function, and who bore its financial and structural costs? From 25 to 27 September 2025, the international conference Comparative Perspectives on Taxation and the Colonial State will take place at Europa-Universität Flensburg (Room TAL 007), aiming to establish a comparative framework on colonial fiscal policy. Topics include taxation, public finance, resistance, and long-term effects of colonial rule. The conference will feature two keynote lectures by renowned scholars: Prof. Anne Booth (SOAS London) on “Comparative Research on Colonial Finance,” and Prof. Martin Daunton (Cambridge) on “Colonial Taxation in the Age of Globalized Capitalism.” The event is organized by Marc Buggeln and Jan Kreutz (Research Centre for Regional Contemporary History and Public History) as part of their DFG-funded project “Die Konturen des Kolonialstaats. Steuer- und Haushaltspolitik in den deutschen Kolonien 1884-1914” and is supported by the Fritz Thyssen Foundation (More information).

Rat der EU: Weg frei für europäische KI-Strategie in Forschung und Wissenschaft

Council of the EU Sets Framework for a European Strategy on AI in Science

On 23 May 2025, the Council of the European Union adopted conclusions calling for the development of a comprehensive strategy for Artificial Intelligence (AI) in science. The conclusions emphasize the importance of responsible, ethical, and inclusive AI use in research to foster innovation, societal benefit, and competitiveness. Key priorities include interdisciplinary research ecosystems, improved access to AI infrastructure (e.g., AI factories, HPCs), coordinated funding, training initiatives, and support for open science and FAIR data. The Council also backs the creation of a European AI Research Council (RAISE) and calls for harmonisation of national strategies to prevent fragmentation. AI systems used for scientific purposes will remain exempt from the AI Act. Weitere Informationen Quelle: KoWi-Newsletter, 28.05.2025
